

SECRETARY OF STATE MADE HIS OWN SPECIAL PROTEST

Houser Appears Before The Railway Rate Commission Regarding Special Rates.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., April 13.—The question of reducing freight rates on the railroads operating in the state of Wisconsin, which formed a large part of the agitation by which Senator R. M. La Follette maintained his political warfare for a decade in this state, has been placed formally before the state railroad rate commission by Secretary of State Walter L. Houser. He has filed a formal complaint with the commission, in his capacity as citizen, farmer, stock raiser and dairyman. The fact that he is a candidate for the republican nomination for a third term leads some people to declare that his action is taken for political purposes, but the action will nevertheless cause the rate commission to investigate the large and important matter of freight rates, give the railroads an opportunity to make answer to this complaint, which is in fact the complaint which the La Follette faction has been making for years, and the question will have a judicial determination. During the last state campaign, when La Follette was elected for a third term as governor, he used extensive figures in his campaign, said to be the compilations of Statistician Halford Erickson, now a member of the railroad commission, purporting to show that the railroads greatly discriminated against Wisconsin in freight rates, charging from 20 to 60 per cent more for service in this state than for similar service in other states. At each place where the governor spoke in his campaign he presented figures showing that this discrimination was of peculiar economic importance to that community. Secretary Houser has taken the situation of his home community, Mondovi, Buffalo county, as the specific basis of his complaint. He complains against the Chicago & North-Western and the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha roads as being the only route available for Mondovi and vicinity over which to reach Milwaukee, the metropolis of the state and the most important market for the products of that district. He gives the rates charged for various commodities on this line and also rates charged in Illinois for similar commodities for similar distances, the comparison appearing to show the discrimination against Wisconsin that is alleged by the complainant. This is the second action taken by Secretary of State Houser against railroad companies before the rate commission. Recently he made complaint against five companies, complaining that the maximum passenger rate of three cents a mile was unreasonable and unlawful, and praying that the commission establish a maximum rate of two cents. Hearings on the two-cent complaints come up before the commission next week.

"DICKEY" REMP WILL SUE TO BE REINSTATED IN VARSITY

Athlete Fired For Holding A Beer "Fest," To Take Legal Action Against Faculty.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., April 13.—Suit has been brought against the faculty of the University of Wisconsin to test the right of that body to expel citizens from the institution for violent and unwholesome influences exerted. Richard Remp, former football star, was expelled or "indefinitely suspended" this week by the faculty following upon his giving of a "kommerz" or "beer fest" to more than 100 student friends, and he has applied in the court for an alternative writ of mandamus to compel the faculty to allow him to resume his attendance at the university pending the judicial determination of his case. A short time ago he announced to his friends that he was out of the university but he would give the boys "a good time" before he left. It appears that his university work is practically completed, as he had little to do this year, returning only to play football and acquire some few credits necessary to taking his baccalaureate degree. He has been at the university five years. The action of the faculty in suspending him would deprive him of his degree. This, he complains to the court, is a great hardship and disgrace, which if not prevented, will be irreparable. Therefore he prays for a writ to compel the faculty to take him back until his rights as a citizen can be determined. There was no drunkenness at the party, nor great disorder, but President Van Hise said the suspension was based on a rule time ago he announced to his friends that he was out of the university but he would give the boys "a good time" before he left. It appears that his

LIVELY POLITICS DOWN IN ALABAMA

Governor Cunningham Promises to Keep Things Lively Until Primeries in August.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Montgomery, Ala., April 13.—Lieut. Gov. R. M. Cunningham has this week begun his campaign for the gubernatorial nomination in earnest and from now until the state primary in August he promises to keep the political pot sizzling at a lively rate. Until the present time Mr. Cunningham has remained comparatively inactive in pushing his campaign and reports were circulated that he intended to quit the race. His public speeches of the past week have clearly shown, however, that he has no such intention.

His rival for the nomination is B. B. Comer, president of the state railroad commission and a prominent farmer and cotton mill owner. Mr. Comer is a leader of the radical reform element, while Lieut. Gov. Cunningham represents the conservative forces. With these two fighting for the governorship and a large field in the race for the senatorial "ogus" whenever they are laid aside by Messrs. Morgan and Pettus, the prospects are that Alabama will witness from now on one of the fiercest political fights of late years.

Letter to Mr. J. F. Boynton,

Janesville, Wis.

Dear Sir: One of the most important things a farmer does is to keep his buildings in good condition.

And one of the simplest and easiest ways of doing it is to paint them.

It's easier to make money by keeping your buildings up than to raise an extra bushel or so to the acre.

Wm. Kocgan, a farmer near Bear

Valley, Wis., lately painted his house.

It had always taken 12 gallons of mixed paint, and he didn't believe 7 gallons of Devco lead-and-zinc would do a good job.

But he used only 6 and took the 7th back to H. Toms, Richland Center, Wis., the dealer who sold it.

They were both surprised. A neighbor of Mr. Kocgan used Devco lead-and-zinc paint on his house as a result. Devco lead-and-zinc is economy.

Yours truly,

ALLEN GUILTYLESS

OF ABUSIVE TALK

Jury So Found in Municipal Court

Action Yesterday and Costs Were Taxed to Complainant.

Late yesterday afternoon the jury trying the abusive language action brought in municipal court against

M. P. Allen on complaint of Charles

Shimeall of Shopshire retired to pass upon the evidence. Five minutes later the six had returned to their chairs in the court room with a verdict of "not guilty." Judge Fifield in reviewing the case gave it as his opinion that the entire action was brought without cause and that the complainant had been actuated by malice. He, therefore, taxed to him the costs amounting to about $21. The case was the outgrowth of an assault and battery action brought on complaint of Mr. Allen in the same court last January. Mr. Shimeall was found guilty and fined $10 and costs amounting to about $40. Through his attorney,

Charles Pierce, the case was appealed to circuit court and was to have been tried last Wednesday. On that occasion, however, Mr. Shimeall agreed to a settlement, whereby he was to pay the $10 costs in the lower court, the $14 costs in the upper court, and $100 to Mr. Allen, to have the action dismissed. But no sooner had

Mr. Allen signed the release than Mr.

Shimeall swore out a warrant for his arrest on the charge of addressing foul and abusive language to him on the 20th of last December, the same date on which the assault on Allen was committed in his own yard. His witnesses were a man named Porter and his son who testified that they were at work 80 rods away and heard

Allen calling Shimeall vile names.

Porter, Sr., refused to repeat the names on the witness stand yesterday owing to some curious scruples he entertained with reference to uttering swear-words, even when simply repeating what another had said. Besides the eighty rods which intervened there was a barn and the two Porters were busy themselves unloading some sacks and carrying them thither during the melee. The members of Mr. Allen's family who were upon the scene swore that he had used no abusive epithets. John Cunningham was attorney for the defendant.

— FORTY YEARS AGO —

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, April 13, 1866.—Good For Him.—We yesterday saw Alderman MacDougall with hammer and nails making fast the loose boards on Milwaukee street bridge. He has doubtless saved someone a great deal of suffering and the city a large item of expense.

Getting Ready For It.—Notwithstanding the dangers of the flood Mr. McChesney has gone steadily forward in the work of building an additional story on his mill on the race. He has been getting in a new carding machine and proposes to be in readiness to make any quantity of rolls, when the proper time comes.

What's The Explanation.—There is said to be a well in Engine House No. 3 of this city which presents a somewhat singular phenomenon. During the late flood the water in the race has stood as high, within two or three inches, as the top of this well. And, in fact, two streams of considerable size have been running into it from the top for a number of days, and yet the well does not fill up, though we are informed that one would suppose that this surface water would fill it up in a few minutes. It looks as if someone has stolen the bottom out of this well.

Vain.—The energy with which the street cleaning was engaged in yesterday clearly indicated that all meant business. It is gratifying to observe that the work of carrying off the filth is receiving attention.

FOOTLIGHT FLASHES

A novel feature in the amusement line will be the coming attraction at the Myers grand theatre, when the stage will be occupied by Prof. Crocker and his troupe of thirty beautiful animals, including horses, ponies, donkeys and mules, gathered from all corners of the earth chiefly for their symmetrical forms and characteristics due to the country of their birth and excellent breed. There is not at the present time or has there ever been a similar combination of horse intelligence, beauty and variety. From the beautiful Arabs, standing fifteen hands, two inches, down to the tiniest of equine wonders. Midget, a bright little Shetland pony standing just thirteen inches—fancy about the height of a table—and little as he is he can play to his heart's content with a sea-saw weighing seven hundred pounds, made especially for three horses to balance without aid, to excellent precision with musical accompaniment.

S. S. S. PURELY VEGETABLE

The fact that S. S. S. is a purely vegetable preparation, containing not the slightest trace of mineral in any form, has been one of the strongest points in its favor during its forty years of existence. It is recognized everywhere not only as the best of all blood purifiers, but the one medicine that can be taken with absolute safety by the youngest child or the oldest member of the family. Next in importance to removing the cause of any disease is the condition in which the system is left after a course of medical treatment. Medicines containing mercury, potash or other strong mineral ingredients often do permanent injury by eating out the delicate lining and tissues of the stomach, producing chronic dyspepsia, unfavorably affecting the bowels and so damaging the system that even if the original cause of the disease has been removed, it is left in such a deranged and weakened condition that the health is permanently impaired. S. S. S. enjoys the distinction of being the only blood medicine on the market that does not contain a mineral property in some form. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks it is absolutely harmless to any part of the system, and while curing disease adds strength and health to every part of the body. S. S. S. removes all poisons, freshens and purifies the blood and gives better and more lasting results than any other blood medicine. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison and all troubles due to an impure or poisoned blood supply. Besides being the King of blood purifiers S. S. S. is the best and most invigorating of all tonics.

The merchant who has to offer a better bargain in a dress fabric than was ever before offered to the women of this city should realize that the "news" is worth a big "spread-head."

Chicago has placed its mark of approval on the Longworths.

Zion City is now deeply engrossed in excitement of a real, live town.

It looks now as though Pompeii was on the bill for a few more "last days."

Just at present Vesuvius comes to the front again with its torch-like splendor.

One would think that Vesuvius would be satisfied now that it has blown off its head.

Senator Spooner is to talk on the rate bill and what he says will be listened to with interest.

Voliva is about right. Ignore Dowie and his wind bag will burst. He can stand anything else but that.

Arbitration between Dowie, the mighty, and his followers at Zion City, may be a result of the present trouble.

Dowie has petered out. His mighty coming like the March lion has developed into the meek advent of the March hare.

Tobacco buyers appreciate the Wisconsin crop and are thankful that it has not been killed by competition with Malay labor of the Philippines.

Roosevelt has his little talk on the "reformers" of the vivid type all ready for delivery and the public can now read something worth reading.

Dowie was a fox old boy. He had arranged for a private room where no one could disturb him, where he might make "converts" possibly for his "harem."

The question of making hay while the sun shines seems to have been Dr. Dowie's creed and the only trouble with his harvest was that the rain came and spoiled the crops.

There is no question in the minds of many but that Dowie is getting just what he deserves. Among the people thinking that way might be mentioned his "dear" son Gladstone.

The outlook for the coming year for the farmers is most excellent. Good prices for corn, wheat, tobacco and sugar beets seem assured and the only thing now lacking is a promise of good weather.

The Free Press, through its Washington correspondent tries to belittle Senator Spooner and in trying shows its own mean disposition and loses its intrinsic value as a news gatherer of veracity.

Russian soldiers, returning from Japanese prisons, find in many cases they have been given up as dead and their wives have re-married again. One man wanted to let the second wedding stand for twenty-five dollars but the second husband refused to pay up and the returned soldier took back his spouse.

"THE ROOSEVELT DOCTRINE."

The trip which Secretary Root is to make to South America is not unlikely to figure largely in the history of this country and of the great South American republics. The trip will be well timed. It is necessary in order that the true policy of this country toward South America may be fully explained to the South American people. Without such an explanation there is grave danger that a spirit of hostility to this country may spread throughout the South American republics which by right ought to be in the fullest sympathy and harmony with us. There is probably no American statesman who is better qualified to make this explanation and to restore a feeling of confidence and good will between the nations of North and South America than Elihu Root.

The people of the United States do not generally understand the state of feeling which exists in certain of the South American republics. This state of feeling, however, is well known to President Roosevelt and to Secretary Root. In his last annual message the president said that "we must recognize the fact that in some South American countries there has been much suspicion lest we should interpret the Monroe doctrine as in some way inimical to their interests, we must try to convince all the other nations of this continent once and for all that no just and orderly government has anything to fear from us." Nevertheless the interpretation of the Monroe doctrine which President Roosevelt made in this message has served to increase the very suspicion to which he alludes.

A recent editorial that appeared in the "La Prensa" of Buenos Aires, reprinted in many of the leading newspapers of Brazil, contained a statement of the South American view of President Roosevelt's policy which is of extreme interest. It declares that the Monroe doctrine has been superseded by the Roosevelt doctrine and that the two are quite different.

President Monroe, it says, notified Europe that the United States would not permit her to reconquer the countries of South America that had gained their independence. The South Americans, it goes on to say, were not consulted in the Monroe proclamation of "America for the Americans." Nevertheless it was a very proper act. However, it is declared to be no bond of union between the United States and the South American countries, but simply a question of relation between the United States and the South American countries.

But simply a question of relation between the United States and the European powers. But "La Prensa" declares that President Roosevelt has gone beyond the Monroe doctrine and set up a new doctrine of his own. According to this South American critic, he takes upon himself the right to censure the acts of the South American governments, as well as the right to correct them. The Roosevelt doctrine, it declares, denies the independence of the South American countries, subjects them to tutelage and assures European capital invested in Latin America, that the United States stands ready, as a police force, to protect it against internal convulsions, disorders and thievery.

This, it declares, is supreme injustice, and adds that South America never received from Europe an injury comparable to this blow delivered by the United States. "All South America," it says, "should understand that President Roosevelt has created an entirely new doctrine substantially imperialistic and radically different from the Monroe doctrine to assault the independence of the nations that people it (South America)."

Now what is the Roosevelt amendment of the Monroe doctrine? This is best answered by quoting from the president's message of December, 1905. We must, he says, as a nation make it evident that we do not intend to treat the Monroe doctrine in any shape or way as an excuse for aggrandizement on our part at the expense of the republics of the south. All that this country desires is that the other republics on this continent shall be happy and prosperous unless they maintain order within their boundaries and behave with a just regard for their obligations toward outsiders. They must understand that under no circumstances will the United States use the Monroe doctrine as a cloak for territorial aggression. Moreover we must make it evident that we do not intend to permit the Monroe doctrine to be used by any nation on this continent as a shield to protect it from the consequences of its own misdeeds against foreign nations. We must ourselves, in good faith, try to help upward toward peace and order those of our sister republics which need such help. Just as there has been a gradual growth of the ethical element in another so we are, even though slowly, more and more coming to realize the duty of bearing one another's burden not only as among individuals but also as among nations.

Now this Roosevelt doctrine, if it may be so called, seems to our eyes eminently fair and reasonable. But it is necessary that we should try to look at it through South American eyes. While it is quite likely that much of the criticism which has been excited in South America is the result of the manipulation of foreign commercial interests which desire to prevent the United States from getting any foothold on South American trade, yet it is evident that there is a genuine feeling existing in certain parts of South America that this Roosevelt doctrine does, in some way, mean a humiliating protection on the part of the United States tending to an abridgment of South American liberty. This being the case Secretary Root's forthcoming visit to South America may be hailed as an event intended to restore good feeling between the United States and the countries around which we have thrown the protecting shield of the Monroe doctrine.

LOCAL LACONICS

Wind Flowers Arrive: Andrew Kimball again holds the honor for being the first resident of Janesville to find the dainty little wind flower growing on the edge of the city. Two dainty bunches of these heralds of spring were left at the Gazette office this morning.

Give a Concert: The members of the Young People's society of the Presbyterian church will entertain the members of the church and congregation at a concert given in the auditorium of the church on Monday evening, April 16, at eight o'clock. The program to be followed by a reception in the church parlors.

Dobbins Fined $3: About one o'clock this morning there was an altercation at the chop suey restaurant with Edward Dobbins as the aggressor. The fight broke out over a young woman. In municipal court this morning Dobbins was fined $3 and costs for the disorderly conduct and paid the same.

"Heet" Dulin in Jail: This morning Mrs. "Heet" Dulin was picked up on the streets in an intoxicated condition and taken to the city lock-up.

A Suspicious Call: At an early hour Wednesday morning an eavesdropper with his bat pulled down over his eyes called at the St. Patrick's church parsonage and informed Rev. James McGinnity, who came to the door that he was badly wanted at the Mulcahey home on Gold street, one of the members of the household being critically ill. Father McGinnity was suspicious and did not respond to the call. In the morning he made inquiries and found that he had not been sent for. It is believed that the strange visitor was looking for an opportunity to make a tour of the house and collect any valuables that might be accessible.

INTERESTING TALK ON FOREIGN SERVICE

Former Vice Consul to Hongkong Visits Friends in the City Today.

Harry Hobbins, who has recently returned from Hongkong, where he has been vice consul under General Bragg, visited friends in the city today. Mr. Hobbins talks very interestingly on the life in the Far East and tells of the queer sights, peculiar customs and general work of the American consulate office in Hongkong, the largest in the world. Mr. Hobbins was vice consul to General Bragg when that civil war veteran was stationed in Cuba and then went with him to Hongkong when he was transferred to that city. Mr. Hobbins says the heat is excessive, the prices very high and the work very hard. Social requirements are exacting and the surroundings pleasant. Mr. Hobbins returned from his post last December owing to the ill health of his wife. Eastern dishes were one of the subjects Mr. Hobbins spoke interestingly on, but he feels that three years in the eastern world is enough for him. He is now practicing law in Madison.

While he was inside upon a ladder pounding off a board all of a sudden the shed collapsed. Mr. Natesta says it was a miraculous escape.

ACTION TO SET ASIDE CONTRACT

BROUGHT AGAINST BRODHEAD MEN BY SAM STEWART.

5,200 LOSER ON A TRADE

Plaintiff Claims He Was Intoxicated
When He Gave Everything He Owned for $700 in Livery Stock.

Papers served by Attorneys Ryan & Oestreich on Emil Schadt of Brodhead, who was a chance visitor in the city today, summon him to defend himself in court against a civil action brought in behalf of Sam Stewart, who formerly lived near Brooklyn, but now resides in the town of Magnolia. The action is brought to set aside a contract which Stewart made with Schadt and a man named F. L. Warren the 5th day of April. It is alleged that with the encouragement of the two Brodhead men Stewart attained a joyful state of intoxication wherein it was easy to mistake an old crowbar horse for a blooded trotter. At any rate the two men are alleged to have succeeded in persuading him to give them a land contract for eighty acres of land worth $5,200, personal property thereon worth $700, and his note for $300, all in exchange for about $700 worth of horses, buggies, and harness in the Schadt livery horse emporium. In addition to all this it is charged that Stewart was induced to sign a written stipulation that he forfeit $300 in cash if he did not fulfill his end of the bargain. While he was still in the arms of Bacchus it is also alleged that the two men took his span of colts away from him, sold them and pocketed the proceeds. If all of these allegations are correct it would seem that the two Brodhead men are entitled to the chocolate cake as the champion bargain artists of Rock county. The action will probably be tried in circuit court some months hence.

IS IT A RELIC OR JUST AN OLD COIN?

E. H. Marvin Finds Nickel That Might Have Been in Hyatt House Fire.

E. H. Marvin, Janesville agent of the American Express company, possesses a nickel which he thinks might be a rare relic and yet may be only an old battered coin. He found the piece of money in the cellar of the building occupied by the Express company while shoveling up some sand he intended to use in a chicken coop. The coin shows that it has at some time in its history passed through a fire, being blackened and misshapen as only intense heat is able. It would seem that this had been dropped at the time of the Hyatt House fire, which stood on that site was destroyed by fire. But the date on the nickel is 1867 and the conflagration occurred on the twelfth of January of that same year. On the other hand it is hard to understand how a coin in such condition should get down into the ground there in any other way.

The bulletin of the completed returns up to tomorrow evening which will be published on Monday evening will contain the last information which will be given out as to the standing of any of the candidates in the Gazette diamond contest. The ballot boxes will be locked and sealed by the committee before the voting begins on Monday and they will not again be opened until the judges assemble to begin the final count.

It should be remembered that the polls will be closed at eight o'clock sharp on Monday night and that no votes will be admitted after that hour.

It has been suggested that some special provision should be made for registering the certificate votes during the last hour when the rush of the late voters may shut some of them out. It is not expected that there will be any such pressure during the last hour, but every possible facility will be provided so far as can be foreseen. The bulk of the votes will be registered early, no doubt and those who wish to secure these votes for any of the candidates can do so through those they wish to vote for as well as through the Gazette office.
